

The North Cumberland Historical Society

Our mandate is to collect historical and genealogical information for the North Cumberland area. Our records are extensive and available to the public. Books on founding families and the area's history are for sale. The Society also sells copies of historical photographs.

The Historical Society's office is located upstairs in the old Canadian National Railroad station at 10222 Durham Street. Volunteers are on duty Friday afternoons from 1pm to 4pm. To make an appointment for another time, call 902-243-3448.
